

Boss-subordinate relationships matter a lot for everyone. It is not only the ability to do good work alone that brings success, but the rapport between you and your boss too that plays an important role in one's professional growth. If one can master the knack of handling the boss, nothing can stop him/her from soaring high in their careers because, all said and done, the boss is always right!

ARIES

These bosses are known to be quite temperamental. They are workaholics and expect the same attitude from subordinates. One needs to understand them as per their mood swings. When they are in a bad mood, they may either not react or react unreasonably. Hence, they need to be approached once again when they are calm. Formal wishing pleases them.

TAURUS

These bosses are known for grabbing opportunities at the right time. They cannot be coaxed to take quick decisions. One has to understand and keep enough of reaction time and space. But once they are convinced, they don't believe in second thoughts and go straight for action. They can be pampered with good clothes, music and outings.

LIBRA

They use balanced dose of firmness, discipline and human angle while dealing with every task. At times of work pressures, they become workaholics and expect the same from you too. You may impress your Libran bosses by not showing your attitude to work only from nine to five but go beyond that. If they make you work extra when needed, they will reward you too at the right time.

SCORPIO

These bosses are either liked or disliked for their style of work. But it does not bother them as they mean business, not popularity. They are determined people and know exactly what course they want to take. Wanna impress your Scorpion boss? Do as they ask you to do. They like eating, hence a good party may impress them.

SAGGITARIUS

These bosses like something new, adventurous, innovative and impulsive. They like to take risks, hence, new concepts always attract them. They are born entrepreneurs. These bosses attach great value to laws, reasoning, research and education. To impress these bosses, be candid, plan well and involve them in something challenging.

GEMINI

They are very impulsive — quick to take offense and quick to forget as well. Don't be sure of any fixed office routine. Sometimes they will make you sit late hours, on other occasions, they might ask you to leave early. These bosses have too many ideas on their minds at a time. Pamper them by surprise gifts and be the first one to greet them.

CANCER

These bosses are unsure of their moves and their speed of execution. These bosses never forget slights, hurts and digs. As these bosses do not have many sympathisers, those of you who support them in difficult times and become their personal friends, are rewarded as they go out of their way to benefit you. Please them by small get-togethers in the office, especially on their personal important dates.

LEO

These bosses have charming personalities. Their organisational abilities are up to mark. They exude confidence all the way. They are paragons of perfection and have a swollen ego which needs continuous pampering. Please them by praising every act of theirs.

VIRGO

These bosses are clean at heart and magnanimous in nature and attitude. They help many of their subordinates to come up. They are true leaders who help needy associates in times of crisis in professional and personal matters. These bosses do not appreciate show business, or flamboyant gestures. They value merit rather than influence and flattery. As reliability is their hallmark, it is the only way one can impress a Virgo boss.

CAPRICORN

They are full of ideas and zeal to excel and expect subordinates to add value to their missions rather than act as burden. Their motto is 'waste not, want not.' If you want to make it big, tag along with them. Follow the three 'S'es (Security, Solidity, Safety) to take up any task and you will be the favourite of these Capricorn bosses.

AQUARIUS

These bosses are good human beings and have a human approach to every situation. Very independent, creative and careless, this boss can drive you to distraction! Impressing this boss is very simple and you just have to work hard to impress them. They love flowers, gift them some times.

PISCES

These bosses love peace, calmness, and hates undue pressures. They like employees who respond sensitively. Though they know their jobs well, they are always open to suggestions even if it may contradict them. To impress these bosses, be sincere and dedicated to them. As they are good artists who can make social gatherings lively and entertaining, you can learn some artistic skills to win them over.

'I carry a Shivling in my handbag'

Actor Udita Goswami tells BT that she fasts on Tuesdays as suggested to her by a Muslim baba she believes in

When I was a kid, like all parents, mine too had consulted an astrologer and he had predicted that I'll make it big in life. I always carry a Shivling in my handbag. Once I had gone to a fengshui expert's shop and had bought a lot of things from there. When I spelt out my name, the expert asked me to retain the way I spelt it and not change it. He said that the total of my name was coming to 43 and people strive for that number. Of late, I have become a believer in a Muslim baba — I call him Miyaji — who is like a messenger of God for me. I don't ask for anything, but tell him all my problems. He prays for me and everything becomes fine. He is in the Masjid praying all the time and as per his instructions, I fast on Tuesdays and he has also given me a silver ring for protection, which I never remove. While I was shooting for Paap, I was asked to remove it since I was playing the role of a Buddhist but I explained it to Pooja Bhatt and she was understanding enough to let me wear it the other way round. I do go through the weekly predictions once in a while but I am scared to go to a face-reader or future-teller. I feel that one's karma reflects on one's life. I love animals and give them food and water and that makes me feel good — especially water as I have observed that somehow animals manage to get food but water is difficult to come by for them. And I am sure that I must have done something nice to be leading the life the way I am.

The Tip

How should one organise their bathroom according to feng shui?

- Clean the bathroom thoroughly after removing all the accessories and personal products from there. Replace them after you're done.
- Discard any product that is over one year old. Old mascara, make up, cold creams and deodorants should go.
- Fit your bathroom cupboards with storage units. There are a multitude of storage units that are inexpensive and easy to install.
- Place everyday items in convenient locations. Store the once a month products in the lower drawers or at the back of a cupboard. Find a storage system that works for your family.
- Place hooks on the walls and back of doors for housecoats, towels, wet swim suits. Also, take the electric toothbrushes and hairdryers and secure them on the wall to free counter space.
- Install a basket in the shower/bath to hold the shampoos and other products. There are a variety of styles in the market.
- Keep your extra supplies in one drawer or cupboard for easy access. Organised bathrooms allow you to relax in the warmth of the bath when needed.
- Do a thorough cleaning of your bathroom once a year or every six months.
